Bill No. 11-007

To amend TL10-004, the Legislative Reform Act of 1993.

IN THE CHICKASAW TRIBAL LEGISLATURE

February 18, 1994

Introduced by Mevelyn KIRKPATRICK, 'Rena DUNCAN and Ron PARKER and referred to the Legislative Committee.

A BILL

BE IT ENACTED by the Tribal Legislature of the Chickasaw Nation, assembled, to amend the Legislative Reform Act of 1993, to wit:

SEC.7. (A) 6. shall read:

6. Each standing committee, except those committees separately provided for, shall be composed of not more than six members of the Legislature, each of whom shall serve on no more than three standing committees. In addition, the Chairperson shall be a non-voting member of all standing committees, except to break a tie.

Under SEC.7. (A), add part 6.(a) to read:

(a) The Legislative Committee shall be composed of the Chairmen of all the standing committees. The Chairperson shall serve as a non-voting member, except to break a tie. Members of the Legislative Committee shall not count the Legislative Committee as one of the three standing committees referred to in SEC.7. (A) 6.

Under SEC.7. (A) 8, add sub-part (e), to read:

(e) Tribal Historic and Cultural Preservation Committee: Sub-committees include, but are not limited to, language preservation, tribal grave site identification and preservation, ceremonial grounds identification and preservation, and historical archive preservation, and may be composed of other persons, such as historians, but such other persons shall not be allowed to vote on legislation that is before the committee.

Members of the Tribal Historic and Cultural Preservation Committee shall not count this committee as one of the three standing committees.

Under SEC.7. (A) 8, add sub-part (f), to read:

(f) Education Committee: Sub-committees may include, but are not limited to, Libraries, Schools, Scholarships, Native American Studies.

Under SEC.7. (G), add to part 2. to read:

2.A committee meeting shall be an exclusive, closed meeting of the members of that committee, and any other Legislators or persons whom, by majority vote on motion of the Chairman, the committee agrees to include. Only the duly designated members of a committee shall be qualified to vote on business coming before a committee. All others, Legislators or not, who are not members of the committee in which they are attending, shall leave such meeting upon the request of the Chairman of the committee, without question, comment, or delay.

Under SEC.10. (C) 1., amend it to read:

(C) 1.Tribal Laws shall be any properly enacted and executed legislation that has the force and effect of law, whether originally styled as a Resolution, Enactment, Tribal Law, Act, or Bill and when enacted shall be made a part of the Tribal Code of the Chickasaw Nation.

Executed in regular session of the Chickasaw Tribal Legislature at Ada, Oklahoma, on February 18, 1994, by a vote of 12 ayes, 0 nays, and 0 abstentions.
