WHEREAS, in accordance with Article VII, Sections 4 and 7 of the Constitution of the Chickasaw Nation, the Chickasaw Tribal Legislature shall enact rules and regulations pertaining to the Chickasaw Nation, and shall make decisions pertaining to the acquisition, leasing, disposition and management of real property, subject to federal law, and

WHEREAS, in accordance with Article XI, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Chickasaw Nation, the Governor shall perform all duties appertaining to the Office of Chief Executive. He shall sign official papers on behalf of the Nation, and

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes the need for disclosure and reporting of campaign finance issues.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Chickasaw Tribal Legislature hereby amends Title 8, Chapter 10, of the Code of the Chickasaw Nation, to wit:

Add Section 8-1001, Disclosure of Campaign Contributions/Expenditures, to read as follows:

A. "All candidates for elective office shall file a statement disclosing any and all campaign contributions, including the following information:

- (1) The source and amount of all monetary contributions to their campaign.
- (2) The name and number of hours for volunteers, excluding immediate family, who donate their time, expertise and or services for the benefit of the candidate or elected official and the estimated value of their time at fair market value or their salary.
- (3) The source and value or cost of any "in kind" contributions. "In kind" is defined as any thing or service donated of any value.
- (4) Any single contributor (excluding candidates own personal funds), whether an individual, a business or corporation is limited to a maximum monetary contribution of $1,000.00. Any contributions in excess of this limit must be declined or returned immediately.

B. This requirement of disclosure will be effective as of the date passed and will require disclosure for all future elections and any contributions made therefor.

- (1) For the first election year that this law is implemented, all candidates must disclose cash on hand at the beginning of the reporting period (i.e. upon declaration of candidacy) and make a good faith effort to disclose all relevant sources.
- (2) For contributions made after passage, full disclosure requirements of all contributions will be required as specified throughout this section.

C. Campaign Contribution Disclosure Statements will be filed along with an affidavit by the candidate swearing to its accuracy.

D. Campaign Contribution Disclosure Statements will be filed with the Election Secretary/Tribal Registrar upon declaration of candidacy and updates will be filed at the end of every month until the election for said candidate is completed. It shall be filed on a form provided by the Election Commission which will reflect the above information and be made available for public inspection and copying if requested during regular business hours.

E. Failure to file reports within five days after the end of the month or willfully filing inaccurate reports can be grounds for disqualification by and at the discretion of the Election Commission.
