"SECTION 16-201.4

COMMITTEES AND RULES.

F. An "Ad Hoc Committee" is a Committee appointed by the Chairperson as needed, comprised of members and possibly non-members of the Legislature who investigate and report on specific matters. Only Legislators appointed to an Ad Hoc Committee shall be voting members of that Committee or serve as its Committee Chair. All other members appointed to an Ad Hoc Committee shall be advisory, only. It is dissolved by the Chairperson when that function is deemed to have been served. The following are permanent Ad Hoc Committees of the Tribal Legislature:

4. The Code Development Ad Hoc Committee shall be responsible for proposed Legislation pertaining to amendments of the Chickasaw Nation Code. This Committee shall not have the authority to place Legislation on the agenda of any session; Legislation approved by this Committee shall be forwarded to the Legislative Committee which shall have authority to place such Legislation on a Session agenda. This Committee shall consist of at least one (1) Legislator from each district appointed by the Chairperson."
